IN RE: COMPLAINTS OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT
OR DISABILITY

ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 351

MEMORANDUM OPINION

(Filed: January 11, 2018)

PRESENT: CHAGARES, Circuit Judge.¹

This is a complaint filed under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351-64, against three United States Circuit Judges (“Subject Judges I, II, and III”) and a United States District Judge (“Subject Judge IV”).² For the reasons discussed below, the complaint will be dismissed.

¹ Acting as chief judge for purposes of disposition of these complaints pursuant to Rule 25(f), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

² Complainant presents allegations concerning court employees and others who are not federal judges and who therefore are not subject to the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act. These allegations will not be addressed in this opinion. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 351, 352(b)(1)(A)(i); Rule 4, Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. Furthermore, an unsworn supplement to Complainant’s initial complaint names state court judges, as well as judges from outside of the Third Circuit. These allegations will likewise not be addressed here.

The Judicial Conduct and Disability Act provides a remedy if a federal judge “has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts.” 28 U.S.C. § 351(a). A complaint may be dismissed if, after review, it is found to be not cognizable under the statute, directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling, or frivolous or lacking sufficient evidence to raise an inference of misconduct. 28 U.S.C. §§ 352(b)(1)(A)(i)-(iii).

Complainant filed a pro se civil complaint, which Subject Judge IV dismissed for failure to state a claim. Although Complainant did not appeal the dismissal, Complainant has since filed multiple complaints of judicial misconduct naming Subject Judge IV. See J.C. Nos. 03-16-90001, 03-16-90070, 03-17-90023, 03-17-90028, and 03-17-90088 (the present complaint). Subject Judge I dismissed one of those complaints as merits-related, frivolous, and unsupported. Subject Judge II and Subject Judge III dismissed three of the other complaints of judicial misconduct as merits-related, frivolous, and unsupported. Complainant petitioned for review of Subject Judge I’s and Subject Judge II’s dismissals of his complaints, and the Judicial Council affirmed their orders. Rather than petition for review of Subject III’s dismissal order, Complainant filed the present complaint against Subject Judges I, II, III, and IV.

In the instant complaint, Complainant again claims to be the victim of “judicial warfare.” Among other things, Complainant alleges that Subject Judge IV should not have dismissed his civil action and instead should have entered a default judgment in his favor. He contends that Subject Judge I has protected Subject Judge IV. In addition, he alleges that the Subject Judges have failed to recognize that the appellees in his civil suit are criminals and that theft of “copyright property” is a crime. Complainant also objects to the dismissal of his prior complaints of judicial misconduct as “invalid” and “forfeited.”

To the extent Complainant is attempting to collaterally challenge decisions and rulings by the Subject Judges, the allegations are merits-related. “An allegation that calls into question the correctness of a judge’s ruling, . . . without more, is merits-related.” Rule 3(h)(3)(A), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings; see also Commentary on Rule 3(h)(3)(A) (“a complaint challenging the correctness of a chief judge’s determination to dismiss a prior misconduct complaint would be properly dismissed as merits-related”). Merits-related allegations do not constitute cognizable misconduct under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act. See 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii); Rules 3(h)(3)(A), 11(c)(1)(B), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. The “misconduct procedure [under the Act] is not designed as a substitute for, or supplement to, appeals or motions for reconsideration. Nor is it designed to provide an avenue for collateral attacks or other challenges to judges’ rulings.” In re Memorandum of Decision of Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Conduct and Disability, 517 F.3d 558, 561 (U.S. Jud. Conf. 2008). Accordingly, Complainant’s merits-related allegations will be dismissed.

Complainant’s remaining claims, including his allegations of disability, prejudice, and illegal activity, are premised on nothing more than his merits-related allegations. When considered independently, these allegations lack any evidentiary support.

Accordingly, all remaining allegations are subject to dismissal as frivolous and unsupported by evidence that would raise an inference that misconduct has occurred. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii); Rule 11(c)(1)(C), (D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

Finally, Complainant's current complaints merely repeat many of the allegations set forth in his prior complaints of judicial misconduct. To the extent he has failed to provide "material information not previously considered," Rule 11(c)(2), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, the allegations are subject to dismissal for the same reasons discussed in the memorandum opinions issued in those matters. See J.C. Nos. 03-16-90001, 03-16-90070, 03-17-90022, 03-17-90023, 03-17-90027, 03-17-90028.

Based on the foregoing, these complaints will be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 352(b)(1)(A)(i), (ii), and (iii). Complainant has now filed five separate complaints of judicial misconduct, all of which have been determined to be merits-related, frivolous, and lacking in evidentiary support. J.C. 03-Nos. 03-16-90001, 03-16-90070, 03-17-90022, 03-17-90023, 03-17-90027, 03-17-90028, 03-17-90086, 03-17-90087, 03-17-90088, and 03-17-90089. Accordingly, a copy of this opinion and the underlying complaint will be transmitted to the Judicial Council for a determination of whether the issuance of an order to show cause is warranted. Rule 10(a), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.³

³ Rule 10(a) of the Rules of Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings provides:

Abusive Complaints. A complainant who has filed repetitive, harassing, or frivolous complaints, or has otherwise abused the complaint procedure, may be restricted from filing further complaints. After giving the complainant an opportunity to show cause in writing why his or her right to file further complaints should not be limited, the judicial council may prohibit, restrict, or impose conditions on the complainant's use of the complaint procedure. Upon written request of the complainant, the judicial council may revise or withdraw any prohibition, restriction, or condition previously imposed.

ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 351

ORDER

(Filed: January 11, 2018)

PRESENT: CHAGARES, Circuit Judge.¹

On the basis of the foregoing opinion entered on this date, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the written complaint brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351 is hereby dismissed under 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(i), (ii), and (iii).

This order constitutes a final order under 28 U.S.C. § 352(c). Complainant is notified in accordance with Rules 11(g)(3) and 18, Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, of the right to appeal this decision by the following procedure:

Rule 18(a) Petition. A complainant or subject judge may petition the Judicial Council of the Third Circuit for review.

Rule 18(b) Time. A petition for review must be filed in the Office of the Circuit Executive within 42 days after the date of the chief judge's order.

¹ Acting as chief judge for purposes of disposition of these complaints pursuant to Rule 25(f), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

18(b) Form. The petition should be in letter form, addressed to the Circuit Executive, and in an envelope marked “Misconduct Petition” or “Disability Petition.” The name of the subject judge must not be shown on the envelope. The letter should be typewritten or otherwise legible. It should begin with “I hereby petition the judicial council for review of . . .” and state the reasons why the petition should be granted. It must be signed. There is no need to enclose a copy of the original complaint.
