MEMORANDUM OPINION

(Filed: May 20, 2019)

PRESENT: SMITH, Chief Judge.

This complaint is filed under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351-64, against a United States District Judge (the “Subject Judge”). For the reasons discussed below, the complaint will be dismissed.

The Judicial Conduct and Disability Act provides a remedy if a federal judge “has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts.” 28 U.S.C. § 351(a). A chief judge may dismiss a complaint if, after review, he or she finds it is not cognizable under the statute, is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling, or is frivolous or lacks sufficient evidence to raise an inference of misconduct. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(i)-(iii).

Complainant, a state prisoner, filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. The matter was assigned to the Subject Judge, who referred it to a Magistrate Judge for a report and recommendation. The Magistrate Judge recommended that the petition be dismissed as untimely filed. The Subject Judge adopted the recommendation, dismissed the petition, and declined to issue a certificate of appealability. Complainant appealed, and the appeal remains pending.

In this complaint of judicial misconduct, Complainant alleges that the Subject Judge “violated Brady [versus] Maryland of disclosure of evidence that would have change[d] the outcome of the criminal trial case and the defendant would not be in prison today had the evidence be[en] disclosed that [was] favorable to the defendant.” Complainant claims that the alleged Brady violation constitutes “conspiracy and corruption” and violates Canons of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, the Constitution, and federal law.

While the complaint is not clear, it appears that Complainant is attempting to challenge the dismissal of his habeas petition. Because such allegations question the correctness of a judicial ruling, they do not constitute cognizable misconduct under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act. Rule 4(b)(1), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings (“Cognizable misconduct does not include an allegation that calls into question the correctness of a judge’s ruling, including a failure to recuse.”). Complainant’s merits-related allegations therefore will be dismissed. See 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii); Rules 4(b)(1), 11(c)(1)(B), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

To the extent they are not entirely merits-related, Complainant’s remaining allegations are lacking in evidentiary support. Complainant offers nothing to substantiate his belief that the Subject Judge has engaged in “conspiracy and corruption” or any form of misconduct. A careful review of the record reveals no evidence to support such claims. Accordingly, Complainant’s remaining allegations are subject to dismissal as frivolous and unsupported by evidence that would raise an inference that misconduct has occurred. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii); Rule 11(c)(1)(C), (D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

Based on the foregoing, this complaint will be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) and (iii).
