

Lawyers Advisory Committee Mission Statement

The mission of the Third Circuit's Lawyers Advisory Committee is to facilitate open communication between the Bench and the Bar. The Committee supports the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in achieving, dispensing and administering justice in a fair, impartial, effective, and efficient manner. The work of the Committee shall include:

- Serving as a liaison and facilitating communication between the bench, the bar, and the public;
- Discussing with the Court matters the Committee or the Court believes might improve the administration of justice;
- Making recommendations to the Court concerning local rules and procedures; and
- Undertaking projects as requested by the Court.
